BIG BANK GOES DOWN.

Failure of the American National Bank.

ITS LIABILITIES OVER $2,000,000.

However it has nominal assets exceeding that amount—President Stimson's Statement of the Cause of the Crash.

FORCED TO CLOSE UP.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 20.—Monday was one of the most exciting days financially in the history of Kansas City. The American National Bank at Eighth and Delaware streets failed for $2,500,000, although its nominal assets are in excess of that sum. The bank is capitalized for $1,200,000. The two branches of the bank—one at the Stock Yards Exchange and the other on Union avenue—were likewise both closed Monday morning, and quite an anxious crowd of depositors were standing around the doors. At neither of them could any information be obtained.

The suspension of the American National is said to have been occasioned by a heavy loan which it made recently, and which so depleted its funds that it was unable to get together enough to meet the demands of depositors. The bank asked for a loan of $1,000,000, and the clearing-house committee, after sitting on the matter till 3 o'clock a. m., was forced to refuse, after which suspension became inevitable.

The examination made by the committee from the officers' books showed that the bank owed $1,200,000 to depositors and $800,000 to banks from which it had recently borrowed money to meet the demands of depositors. To offset this it had on hand $400,000 in cash and sight exchange and nominal assets to the amount of nearly $1,000,000. In going over this collateral the bankers threw out a considerable amount as not worth considering. About $1,200,000 remained. This they decided was not sufficient for a loan. Several of the bankers, knowing that the stockholders would be liable for any loss that might be sustained should this emergency prove ample for the loan, were in favor of making it anyhow.

President Stimson, in explaining why there was not more acceptable collateral, stated that, in order to get a loan of $800,000 from Eastern correspondents, the bank had been obliged to hypothecate its best securities. He said that the collateral pledged for these loans was largely in excess of the amount borrowed. As the committee was unable to see this collateral it did not consider it.

The failure was caused by distrust. For weeks there have been rumors to the effect that the bank was unsafe. The quarterly statement made by the American National October 2 showed that it had nearly $5,000,000 on deposit. The distrust caused by the failure of the East added to reports set in circulation as to the bank, caused its deposits to fall off between the statement of October 2 and that of December 19. The deposits December 19 were shown by the statement of that date to have been about $3,000,000. More than half of these were drawn out up to last Saturday night.

It is the opinion of the bankers who examined the American's collateral that the stockholders' loss, while it may be heavy, will not be total. Very little of the stock is held here, most of it being in the hands of wealthy Eastern men, among them being Secretary of State James G. Blaine, who is reported to own $50,000 worth of it.

President W. P. Stimson has made the following statement:

"The bank naturally experienced a heavy shrinkage in deposits and deposits since the recent continued and almost unprecedented stringency. Our shrinkage was especially great on account of the large volume of country business handled. During the last ninety days we collected considerably over $1,000,000 and paid deposits amounting to nearly $3,000,000. About two weeks ago we reached our lowest point, and since then steadily recovered, and last Thursday morning we made an excellent showing and were in an earlier condition than for nearly two months, with every prospect of continued improvement in spite of the fact that certain malicious rumors had been industriously circulated for some time among our depositors and correspondents. A little later, another thing—a clearing-house meeting was called without our knowledge and the other banks voluntarily offered us assistance if needed. Unfortunately this meeting became publicly known, causing increased rumors, which resulted in a run Friday and Saturday, and we then applied to the clearing-house for the aid which it had offered, but we failed to agree on a plan of assistance and consequently we were obliged to close up."

The fact of the bank being closed had a somewhat depressing effect on other bankers in the packing-house district, all of whom experienced more or less of a run, but none were embarrassed by it. A run on the Kansas City Safe Deposit and Savings Bank, which was supposed to be connected with the American National, took place and continued all day. At the hour of closing the crowd of depositors waiting their turn was larger than during the morning. To all appearances the bank has plenty of money, and it is the general opinion of those in a position to know that the bank is all right and that there is no occasion for the scare.

Death of an Illinois Pioneer.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Jan. 20.—Mrs. Mary Orendorff, the widow of Thomas Orendorff, a pioneer of Central Illinois, died Monday, aged 82 years, having lived here since 1823. Her girlhood and early womanhood were spent among the Indians. She and her husband were the second white couple married in Central Illinois. Their intention to wed was made known by posting notices upon trees.

Big Money for the Mississippi.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The House Devotes a Whole Session to Discussion of the Journal—Proceedings in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The intention of the Democrats of the House to resort to obstructive tactics until a determination of the Senate on the elections bill was manifested Monday morning when Mr. Bland (Mo.) demanded the reading of Saturday's proceedings in full instead of its abbreviated form. But the journal being short its reading consumed very little time.

Mr. Mills (Tex.) moved an amendment to the journal relative to the refusal of the chair to recognize his motion to reconsider the vote by which Friday's journal was approved.

The Speaker (regarding the proposed amendment as not proper) recognized Mr. Cannon's (Ill.) demand for the previous question. On a standing vote the demand was rejected—yeas, 72; nays, 73—but the Republicans gathered strength and seconded the demand—yeas, 130; nays, 102.

Thereupon Mr. Springer (Ill.) took the floor under the rule allowing forty minutes' debate after the ordering of the previous question. A running debate ensued for five hours, when the hour was called and an adjournment to 101. The House then adjourned.

In the Senate Senator Gorman (Md.) argued against the correctness of a ruling of the Vice-President during Friday's session to the effect that an appeal from a decision was not debatable because the question itself on which the decision was made (a motion to lay on the table) was an undebatable one. The discussion was kept up until 12:30, when Senator Gorman withdrew his motion. The journal of Friday was approved and morning business was proceeded with.

Senator George (Mass.) took the floor in opposition to the elections bill, but after speaking for some time yielded to Senator Hoar (Mass.), who moved that the adjournment be till 12 o'clock to-day in order to give Senators who desired to attend the funeral of General Grant an opportunity to do so. He added that Mr. Bancroft was perhaps the most illustrious man of letters (with one or two exceptions) in the country. He had a peculiar relation to the people of the United States by reason of the fact that he was everywhere recognized as the great historian of the great era of the foundation and achievement of American independence and of the formation of the constitution. Mr. Bancroft's name had been honored by the Senate in a way in which no other name had been, by a special permission that he should be admitted to the floor of the Senate at all times. The motion was agreed to.

Senator George then resumed his speech, but without concluding yielded for a motion to go into executive session and the Senate soon adjourned.

SUFFERING IN KANSAS.

Governor Humphrey Calls the Legislature's Attention to the Pressing Needs of Residents of Rawlins County.

TORONTO, Kan., Jan. 20.—Governor Humphrey submitted a message to the Legislature Monday afternoon calling attention to a dispatch sent him from Rawlins County telling of extreme suffering from cold and hunger there and asking the Legislature for assistance. He suggested that an emergency bill be rushed through authorizing the warden of the State penitentiary to furnish all the coal necessary from the State mines near Leavenworth. When the message was submitted the Representative from Rawlins County read a telegram saying that many farmers were burning their furniture for fuel and that twelve inches of snow was on the ground. The bill will be passed at this morning's session.

CHICAGO MEN WIN.

The United States Supreme Court Denies Virginia's Anti-Dressed Beef Importation Law.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The Supreme Court has just decided the case brought from the courts of Virginia involving the right to import dressed beef and articles of this character from one State into another. The State of Virginia passed an act placing such severe restrictions on the importation of dressed beef from other States as to be practically prohibitory. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court by the Chicago dressed-beef dealers, and the court declared the law unconstitutional, holding that a State had no right to pass any act, under the name of a health law, interfering with commerce from other States.

Saved by a Cool Schoolmistress.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—Shaw's school, one of the public schools of this city, was totally destroyed by fire at 10:30 a. m. Two hundred and fifty children were in the building when the fire was discovered in the basement by the principal, Mrs. Mary Maurice. She ran to all the rooms, ordered recess and in three minutes the school was emptied and not a child was hurt. Two minutes afterward the flames had possession of the first floor.

Death of Tobaccoist Finzer.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 20.—A cablegram from Bern, Switzerland, announces the death of John Finzer, one of the largest tobacco manufacturers in Kentucky and park commissioner for Louisville.

Killed by the Cars.

BRADDOCK, Pa., Jan. 20.—Monday morning Jacob Walters and his son Harry were literally cut to pieces by a train while walking on the track.

Peculiar Title.

The funniest speeches are not always those "made on purpose." So at least thought a gentleman who was walking through the Boston Public Garden, and sought to amuse himself by questioning some boys whom he found playing near the Washington statue there.

"Boys," he called, as he approached the group of ragged urchins, "who is that gentleman up there?"
The boys looked vaguely about, and one asked briskly:
"What gentleman, sir?"
"The one up there on the bronze horse."

"Oh, that's George Washington," was the concerted reply, and the gentleman walked away, feeling that he had not seemed as funny as he had intended. As he went, however, he heard one boy say to the others, in good-natured derision, "He called Washington a gentleman!"

CHEER GRANT AND LEE.

Ex-Confederates at the Banquet Table.

THEIR BANQUET IN NEW YORK CITY.

Boys Who Were the Gray Propose to Complete the Grant Monument—Observance of the Anniversary in Southern Cities.

A NOTABLE CELEBRATION.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The first annual dinner of the Confederate Veteran Camp of New York at the New York Hotel Monday night brought together many prominent men from all parts of the Union. The camp is said to be the first ex-Confederate organization north of the Potomac since the war. Covers were laid for 160 guests. The dining-hall was elaborately decorated. Colonel A. G. Dickinson, commander, sat at the head of the speakers' table, and about him were General Daniel E. Sickles, General E. P. Alexander, Colonel Charles T. O'Ferrall, Colonel Charles O. B. Cowardin, Hon. Benton McMillen, Hon. Eugene S. Tamm, Hon. J. B. P. Parker, Hon. P. Fitch, Colonel Charles Marshall, General Fitz-John Porter, General W. McLean, Hon. John L. Wise, Hon. C. S. Baker and Bishop Potter. Colonel Dickinson made the opening address, and the following toasts were responded to:

"The Memory of Lee," Colonel Charles Marshall, of Baltimore; "Let Us Have Peace," General Sickles; "The Confederate Veterans," General William C. Gates, of Alabama; "Our Country—The United States," Colonel Charles T. O'Ferrall, of Winchester, Va.; "The Soldier Who Fought for Freedom," Colonel Charles Marshall, of Baltimore; "Our Old Home—the South," Hon. Benton McMillen, of Nashville, Tenn.; "Our Soldier Dead" was drunk in silence.

At midnight the preliminary closed the evening's entertainment.

The mention of the name of General Grant brought forth cheer after cheer. His name was spoken with that of Lee and alternate cheers were given for the memory of these two great generals. Colonel Charles Marshall, a member of General Lee's staff, touched upon the final surrender of their gallant Lee to General Grant. "There is nothing in the history of the whole war more magnanimous than the conduct of General U. S. Grant at the end of the war," said Colonel Marshall in conclusion. Continuing, he said: "Whenever I think of General Lee I think of his great opponent, General U. S. Grant." These words were received with cheer after cheer. His sentiment was loudly applauded. The entire body arose and in silence drank the memory of this great General of the North.

Another agreeable surprise was the presence of Miss Winnie Davis, "The Laughing of the Confederacy." She graciously with her charming smile, at the annual dinner of this Confederate veteran camp. At the close of the dinner she entered the banquet hall on the arm of Commander Dickinson, the presiding officer of the evening, and accompanied by the Duchess d'Auray, the greatest beauty of the South, she gave the signal for an outburst of applause, and the banqueters, rising to their feet, greeted the fair guest with a rebel yell which was given with a will and an energy not equaled since the days of '65. She and the Duchess occupied a seat of honor at the commanders' side.

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 20.—The anniversary of the birthday of General Robert E. Lee had a most enthusiastic celebration here Monday night. General Wade Hampton was the lion of the evening. In the course of his very few remarks Senator Hampton said:

"The regime of the secession may have regressed me to private life, but my old State has as warm a place in my heart as she ever did. Whatever may be the result, my last prayer shall be for the South and South Carolina. When the war was ended and we fell crushed to the earth General Lee, noblest man and the greatest commander of the English speaking world, sent me for aid and said: 'Had you been here with all the old cavalry this would not have happened.' The cavalry of the army of Northern Virginia was worthy to protect the artillery and support the infantry of that great army."

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 20.—General Lee's birthday was celebrated throughout the State by a general suspension of business, processions, speech-making and banquets. In this city the Confederate flag was displayed in addition to other bunting.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 20.—The birthday of General Lee was observed here under the auspices of the Virginia society. Banks and public offices were closed and the post-office kept regular holiday hours.

STILL FULL OF FIGHT.

Ex-Governor Thayer's War on Governor Boyd—He Says He Is Not Insane.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 20.—Notice was served on Governor Boyd Monday morning that Ex-Governor Thayer would apply to the Supreme Court for an injunction restraining him from acting as Governor. The injunction would come up in court January 29. Thayer's petition alleges that he was forced to give up his apartments by fear that he would be removed by force. The petition was signed by the ex-Governor a week or so ago, but was not presented until Monday morning. Ex-Governor Thayer was seen by a reporter and expressed great indignation over the reports sent out concerning his mental condition. He is a trifle weak, but will be in his usual health with a few days' rest. His mind, he claims, is not affected in the slightest degree.

An Iowa Merchant Burned Out.

BOONE, Ia., Jan. 20.—The general store of Clarke, Luther & Son at Luther Station, eight miles south of here, was burned to early Sunday morning. The loss is $10,000. The insurance expired last Friday. The people who lived in the upper story barely escaped.

OUR KEG SLOPS SOLD.

om. H. C. Thom's Report About Janesville Vinegar.

'ATRON'S THE SUFFERERS.

numerous Cases Found Where Wholesalers Were Falsely Off Adulterated Goods Bower City Dealers—No Omelette garine Found in Local Stores.

Janesville people do not realize the service rendered them by Food and Dairy Commissioner H. C. Thom, when he visited this city a few weeks ago.
Commissioner Thom examined samples of vinegar, cream of tartar, syrups, etc., and details the result of his investigations in his annual report.

Out of the thirteen samples of vinegar taken from the stores of Janesville merchants, only three were pure cider vinegar, while six were the cheap whisky product, one malt and cider and two malt and whisky, and one one glasshouse.

It has been the previous custom for many years for manufacturers to force upon the purchaser a cheap imitation of cider vinegar. Many of these imitation vinegars are made from stale beer and bottle washings, and would be immediately driven from the markets, if their origin were not skillfully concealed by the manufacturers.

It is now announced that the sale of the "decolor" compounds in Janesville has been stopped. This, however, is only one of the reforms which the food commissioner brought about.

The commissioner examined a number of samples of cream of tartar, taken in unbroken packages from Janesville merchants, and of the four samples analyzed, found only one pure. Even that was not sold by a grocer. One sample tested was composed of plaster of paris and acid phosphate of lime. The second was cream of tartar, plaster of paris and starch. The third was alum, starch and tartaric acid.

No Janesville dealer sold oleo marger-ine, but it is the matter of milk three under the ban. The state now requires that the milk should contain not less than three per cent. of butter fat. Fourteen samples were furnished by local milkmen, and, as said before, three were below the standard.

The food commissioner's office is the one that the democrats have tried for a year to abolish. To the consumers it looks as if the party had lent itself to the scheme of the dishonest merchants, who care for nothing but the money there is in the nefarious practice. In an interview Mr. Thom says that he has heard of the interview with Governor Peck in relation to abolishing the office, and further says:

"Whether the office is retained or not, I have no expectation or desire to continue it under the new administration.
It is to be regretted that the governor has added his influence to the powerful forces which have been arrayed against the commission and its work from the start. Those forces consist mainly of manufacturers and dealers in dishonest food products, from the agents of Phil Armour to the sellers of filled cheese.
They have denounced the food and dairy commission of Wisconsin, as the result of legislative extravagance.

"The honest producer, the honest dealer and the man who wants to get what he pays for joined to make fraud unprofitable, and the commission was established in obedience to the demands of those men. It has done some work.
It has successfully prosecuted many dealers in adulterated foods. It continued, it will drive filled cheese from the state. It will compel the manufacturers and dealers, who handle coffee and sugar, vinegar and syrup, spices, butter, cheese, lard and mix with their worthless material, to brand their mixtures and compounds and sell them for what they are."

BAD BILLS ARE AFLOAT.

Bogus $10 Greenbacks Offered at Janesville Banks and Stores.

Dangerous ten dollar counterfeit bills have made their appearance in Janesville.
The first one was discovered by A. P.
Burnham at the Rock County National Bank. Since then several are said to have been passed in Janesville stores.
The bill is a very well executed treasury note, and is signed by James W.
Hyatt, treasurer of the United States. The engraving is excellent although the lathe work in one corner is not as fine as the genuine article, but the paper is considerably lighter than that which Uncle Sam uses in his bills.

SUCCESS FOR THE SYMPHONY.

Last Night's Concert Marked by Large Attendance and Warm Applause.

The New York Symphony Club gave a delightful entertainment at the Congregational church last evening. The club is composed of Warren G. Richards, humorous, Miss Marie Sangster, soprano, Charles F. Higgins violinist, Henry Higgins, cornetist, and H. Cornelius clarinetist. Every number on the programme was enjoyed. The entertainment was for the benefit of the Presbyterian church, and netted a good sum.

Is Stanley a Pirate?

E. L. Godkin, in the February number of The Forum, undertakes to prove the expedition to relieve Emin was clearly a practical undertaking, since it had the sanction of no government and its leader was responsible to no power. In the course of the argument Mr. Godkin points out the curious fact that the people of Africa, owing to the slave trade, have always been regarded as fit spoil for pirates even by civilized nations who hold no such notions even about the other savages. Mr. Godkin expresses the highest admiration for Stanley's conduct of the expedition. It is the legal character only that he criticizes.

Health Notes—Statistics prove that twenty-five per cent. of the deaths in our large cities are caused by consumption, and when we reflect that this terrible disease in its earlier stage, will readily yield to a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, costing 25 cents, shall we condemn the sufferers for their negligence or pity them for their ignorance?

There are few things any sweeter than one after a racking pain and this is only given by using Salvation Oil. Price 25 cents at all dealers.

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION.

Put away the little diary You once so fondly viewed.
Already it has gone into Innocuous desuetude.

George L. Carrington was in Chicago to-day.

George C. McLean visited Madison to-day.

Alderman M. Childs went to Chicago last evening.

Daniel Johnson, of Evansville, was in the city today.

The New York Symphony Club stopped at the Grand Hotel.

Rev. J. F. Bowe, of Edgerton, was in the city to-day.

The receipts for the Light Infantry ghost dance were $125.

Fresh bulk and can oysters on hand at the Fountain Exchange.

C. C. Williams, of Whitewater, was in town yesterday and to-day.

The fact remains that Janesville has a surplus of worthless cur dogs.

Dressed hogs are being brought into this market in considerable numbers.

There will be no more skating at the Riverside rink until the thermometer gets down below the freezing point again.

People who neglected to clean the snow from their sidewalks some days ago, now make their way through slush and water.

H. E. Langdon and wife, of Cincinnati, are stopping at the Myers House.

Mr. Langdon is buying Wisconsin tobacco.

Eugene Litke the twelve-year-old boy who was arrested yesterday for carrying concealed weapons, was discharged this morning.

Fred H. Grove, formerly turn-key at the county jail under Sheriff Babcock, has gone to Edgerton to take charge of a tobacco warehouse.

Rev. M. Evans will conduct the services at the Congregational church this evening. The after meeting will be in charge of Rev. Dr. Hodge.

The indications are that there will be a storm February 3, but that will not interfere with the N. O. W. Club masquerade ball at the armory.

Rev. Father Augustin Tolton, of Chicago, is in the city the guest of Dean McGinnity. Father Tolton will lecture in St. Patrick's church this evening.

The folly of allowing gutters and drains filled up with snow and ice is now illustrated in many places in the city by the overflow of sidewalks and crossings.

The supper at Court Street church tomorrow afternoon from 5 to 7:30 o'clock, will be a good one in every particular.
Variety of viands will make it pleasing to every one. The time will accommodate all.

Miss Jennie Hodson entertained a number of friends at her home at Park Place last evening. The affair was in honor of Miss Jennie Kempton, of Chicago. About thirty-five couples sat down to the card tables, and Miss Fenn Bostwick and W. E. Evenson capped prizes.

The windows of J. M. Bostwick & Sons' store present a very spring like appearance, being filled with the most bewitching effects in fine French sashy ginghams, the result of the senior member's recent trip to New York. They are showing many new things for spring.

The ladies of the Rectory Society will hold a pie sale on Thursday, January 22, in the G. A. R. Post Hall. Pies, cakes, cookies, and fried cakes in great abundant, and at reasonable prices. From 5 until 7 one of their best suppers will be served for the small sum of twenty-five cents. The doors will be opened at 1 o'clock, and for those wishing fine pastry or dainty cakes, it is a rare chance to supply their want.

"The Catholic Church Teaches All Nations, No Color Line There," is the subject of Rev. Father Tolton's lecture this evening at St. Patrick's church. Otho Tolton is the only colored Catholic priest in America. He was born a slave, and after securing his freedom was sent to Rome, where he was educated for the priesthood. He is an able and interesting speaker, and his subject is one that will interest all people. All are invited to hear him.

WANT IT LIKE THE MYERS.

Rockford Theatre Owners Come to Janesville for Building Plans.

Rockford takes a back seat for Janesville when it comes to opera house. That is the confession that O. C. Jones, manager of the Rockford opera house, and the board of directors consisting of Messrs. O. P. Trahern, Rhodes, and Finkner made as they stood on the stage at the Myers opera house this morning.
They intend to tear the Rockford opera house all to pieces, and rebuild on the plan of the Myers.

Their present Opera House is much smaller than the Myers and is the only opera house in the city. Oscar Cobb will be the architect and have charge of the improvements and Albert Bender will in all probability be the scenic artist. The Rockford gentlemen were loud in the praise of the Myers Opera House and say that it is the perfection of theatrical architecture.

GROWERS' WAREHOUSE OPEN.

The First Consignment of Leaf Handled by Twenty Sorters.

The Rock County Tobacco Growers Association started their warehouse this morning with twenty hands, and far more tobacco on hand than they expected.
Everything looks very encouraging for the association. A cordial invitation is extended to all stock holders and growers who wish to join the enterprise to come and see the warehouse.

HUNTING PEEPER JACK.

S. E. Neighbors Does Patrol Duty With A Gun.

FOURTH WARD UP IN ARMS

The Mysterious Visitor, However is not the Same Man Who Terrified Second Ward Families Sunday Night—Can Only be Made Suffer for Trespass.

The quiet people down on Center and Cherry streets, fourth ward, had an installation of the second ward Jack the Peepers last night. They discovered a man prowling around peeping in at windows. Between nine and ten o'clock the peeper visited the home of S. E.
Neighbors at the corner of Cherry and Center streets, and surveyed the family group from a partly drawn curtain in the bay-window. He was discovered by one of the family, and Mr. Neighbors hurriedly passed out at the front door, but not in time to head the intruder off. He escaped down Center street, Mr. Neighbors armed himself, and then followed in hopes of overtaking the man, but was not successful.

Earlier in the evening some boys discovered a well dressed man, of medium size, wearing a derby hat and black mustache, peeping in at the windows in the neighborhood, and conversed with him.
The boys say they can identify the man.

There is considerable talk of organizing a vigilance committee for the purpose of hunting the fellow down, and when caught and fully identified, of punishing him severely for his unnatural conduct.

"I have been looking the matter up," said Marshal Acheson, "and I find that he can only be prosecuted for trespass, which would be no punishment at all. I shall keep a look out for him, and if I can get at him I will advise him to leave the city for the benefit of his health. The man down in the fourth ward is not the one seen Sunday night up in the second, so you see there are several doing the same business."

ALL WANT BASE BALL.

Business Men Hoping to Organize Nines in Wisconsin Cities.

H. T. Smith, who is working toward the organization of a state base ball league was in the city to-day. He has interested Beloit in the project and thinks a nine will be organized in that city.

All of the cities that will compose the league since the temporary organization at Oshkosh, have taken active steps in boosting their home organizations. And all will have delegates at the next meeting of the league. Letters have been received by Secretary Kilpatrick from the different cities, signifying their willingness of entering the league and expressing confidence in the success of the league. The business men of the different cities are taking active interest in their respective clubs which assures success. At the next meeting permanent officers will be elected, salary limit fixed and schedule arranged.

KILLED ALL BUT W. N. SNOW.

Terrible Fatality at the Light Infantry Ghost Dance.

Two dozen Indians, dressed in the all Indian finery, stalked around the armory last night. Not only Indians but German, French, Greek, Chinese, and Polish were there in abundant. The ghost dance was good, and George Whitaker made an excellent Indian chief. When the Indians were in the height of the ghost dance, a bullet call was sounded and a detachment of troops came rushing out. A battle ensued. Many were slain on both sides and the soldiers driven back. Then General Miles was caught and tied to the stake. Just as they were burning him more soldiers appeared and slew all the Indians except W. N. Snow. They spared his life because he was a squaw.

Some of the costumes were very elaborate. The party did not break up until two o'clock.

WILL TALK ABOUT FRUIT.

State Horticultural to Meet in Madison Early Next Month.

George J. Kellogg, of this city, will be one of the speakers at the meeting of the State Horticultural Society in Madison.
February 2. The society will meet in annual session at the capitol on February 2, in joint session with the State Agricultural society, and the Beekeepers' association. The sessions will last until the 6th, and will be very interesting, as men of national fame in their profession will be in attendance, among them the Hon. S. M. Emory, of Lake City, Minnnesota, president of the Columbian Exposition Horticultural society. The legislature will also be in session, and preparations must be made for the Columbian exposition.

WANT WATER IN HOUSES.

Janesville Property Owners Laboring with the Water Company.

"I think the water company will lay several thousand feet of pipe next season," said Superintendent Mitchell today. "There are a number of localities anxious to get water for their accommodation. But while there will undoubtedly be many small extensions, I hardly think there will be as much pipe laid next season as there was the last year."

MADE STATUES IN CLAY.

Sculptor Moore and His Story of How Marble Takes Form.

Janesville people had the pleasure of listening to a lecture on art last evening delivered in All Souls' parlor by Sidney H. Moore, a sculptor of considerable note. The lecture was illustrated by clay modeling very cleverly and quickly done. Professor Moore proved as deft in the handling of his clay as was Cartoonist Beard with his crayon pencil.

The Review of Reviews.

"The Review of Reviews" is one of the English periodicals out. Editor W. T.
Blead has made of it a very valuable publication. Through its pages the busy reader finds a way to keep thoroughly informed on all the articles appearing in the magazines of the day. A brief review of current literature prepared in such a way cannot but prove of great value to persons whose time for reading is limited.

TO BOOM JANESVILLE.

An Illustrated Lecture on Florida at the Opera House, February 17.

At a special meeting of the Business Men's Association at their rooms last night, the proposition of Arthur O. Jackson to include Janesville in his new lecture on Growing Cities of the Northwest was unanimously agreed to.

The association by its action has secured the services of a gentleman whose lectures have been most cordially received both in this country and in Europe. It remains for the people of Janesville to make this effort of the association a conspicuous success by attending Mr.
Jackson's lecture at the opera house, February 17, at which is promised a series of eighty magnificent views of Florida specially photographed and presented by oxy-hydrogen light.

Reserved seats will be sold by subscription at fifty and seventy-five cents, and at these prices every seat should be taken at an early day. The entire proceeds will be deposited in the Chicago Trust and Savings Bank and only paid over to Mr. Jackson as the service proposed by him in Janesville's interest is rendered. It is obvious that every ticket bought for the 17th is a direct contribution to a fund for advertising Janesville under the auspices of the Business Men's Association and an opportunity afforded for attending an interesting and instructive lecture and seeing how the resources and attractions of Janesville will be presented elsewhere.

HATE TO LEAVE THE ORDER.

Railroad Operators Complain Against the C. M. & St. P. Franchise.

Janesville railroad men are indignant at the stand taken by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul regarding the operators' strike. They insist that to compel operators to throw up their membership in the Order of Railway Telegraphers is unjust, the order being in the main an insurance organization, and each member having a one thousand dollar policy.
Many have paid premiums on this amount of insurance for years, and to compel them to abandon the order amounts to, asking them for a liberal sum of money.

There was no additional news from the scene of the strike today. Word passed over the line this morning that one of the stations closed near Cedar Rapids was Springfield, Iowa. A small town seven miles west was closed by the company because the townspeople boycotted the new agents employed in the places of strikers. When the new men were sent to the stations they found the inhabitants in league against them. Everyone refused them meals and lodging, and they were bitten to emulate Signor Succi and live on a zone for a while. The agents telegraphed the facts to headquarters, and were promptly ordered to close the stations. Now the agents go scotching through these two Iowa towns without paying any attention to them.

TWO PLAYS ARE PLANNED.

The Fortnightly Club Arranges for an Evening of Dramatic Work.

Professor John Nagler will lead the meeting of the Fortnightly club Saturday evening. His subject will be electricity. The meeting following this will be devoted to a drama in two acts "Down by the Sea." The entertainment will close with a farce "Zor-nubel's Second Wife." Mrs. Walter Helms is in charge. The first rehearsal will be held to-day with the following cast:

"DOWN BY THE SEA."

OATS SELL FAST AT 41 CENTS.

Farmers' Teams Pleading on the Corn Exchange Square.

"Forty and forty-one cents a bushel for oats," remarked a West Milwaukee street business man, "brings in the farmers. Just look out there on the corner by the fountain. There is an even dozen wagons all loaded with oats, and all sold for local use. Farmers having a surplus of oats are very anxious to dispose of this price, and are hurrying into the market."

TO-NIGHT'S PROGRAMME

Lecture by Rev. Father Tolton.

Prayer meeting at the Baptist church.

Western Star Lodge No. 14, F. and A.
M., at Masonic hall.

Oriental Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, at Castle hall.

Janesville City Lodge No. 90, I. O.
O. F., at Odd Fellows hall.

Crystal Temple of Honor No. 32, at new lodge room in the Lappin block.

SHORT LOCAL STORIES.

St. Cecilia Society.

In regard to Mrs. Geneva Johnston Bishop, the Chicago Irish Ocean says:
"Mrs. Bishop has a rare voice of a high register under splendid control, and has full command of it in trills and crescendo passages. Mrs. Bishop has won her way into the hearts of the Chicago people, and is greatly admired as a lady and a singer. Mrs. Bishop will be heard for the first time in Janesville Friday evening, January 30, at the Congregational church, under the auspices of the St.
Cecilia society. Mrs. Nettie Booth Weg, violinist, and Ethel Herr Jones, pianist, will also appear.

The remains of the late Mrs. Hugh McCahey were laid at rest in Oak Hill cemetery this afternoon. Funeral services were held at Trinity church at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. James Blindell. There was a large attendance of family friends, a large delegation of Odd Fellows attended, deceased being a member of America Lodge, Daughters of Rebecca, and her husband a member of Lodge No. 90. Many friends followed the remains to the cemetery.

Robins Sing in Forest Park.

One enthusiastic lady residing in Forest Park is already preparing for spring by getting her flower beds and seeds in shape. A gentleman passing through the park this morning reports that he heard a robin warble the first notes of spring.

HARD DAY FOR SINNERS.

Severe Bill Aimed at Ex-Convicts.

BENNETT LAW ATTACKED.

Other Proceedings of the State Legislature.
Demand that Express Companies Pay a Four Per Cent. Tax on Their Gross Income to the State.

MADISON, Jan. 20.—[Special].—Among the bills introduced in the legislature this morning was one compelling judges to sentence prisoners convicted of second offenses to state prison for the maximum period, and those convicted of third offense, for life, to be released only on pardon of the governor, or on parole during good behavior by the state board of supervision.

Another was to repeal the Bennett law and some of the other measures were: Making members of county boards ineligible for officers or trustees of county insane asylum; causing express companies to report annual transactions to the state treasurer and pay four per cent on gross receipts to the state as state income; to change existing election laws so that bar conventions may nominate candidates for judicial positions; allowing any convention, political or otherwise, to nominate candidates for city offices; counting every ballot on which the intent of the voter is plain; providing for the nominations of state officers by nomination papers signed by at least one thousand voters; providing blank places on each ballot in which the voter can vote for all candidates for party at once, and allowing any person swearing inability to mark ballot to have assistance.

WINANS ON THE JUDICIARY.

And C. E. Moseley Made Transcribing Clerk in the Assembly.

John Winans has been placed at the head of the assembly judiciary committee. Another position that goes to a Janesville man is that of transcribing clerk in the assembly which is bestowed upon C. E. Moseley. Chairman of assembly committees are as follows:

Bills in Third Reading—H. E. Brigger, Madison.

Ways and Means—John Edwards, of Wood.

Federal Relations—Clinton Textor, of Medford.

Education—H. J. Desmond, Milwaukee.
